The Problem

A $37B market running on 1990s technology

Legacy UX

Controller.com has App Store reviews citing "added unnecessary steps" and "deliberately less user friendly" after updates.

No Price Transparency

No automated valuation tools. Zero pricing intelligence. Deals rely on broker relationships and opaque negotiations.

Brazil Underserved

9,824 executive aircraft with no modern marketplace. Sellers use WhatsApp groups, fragmented classifieds, and broker networks.

Investment Highlights

Why AeroDesk, why now

Massive Underserved Market

$37.5B global market growing at 7% CAGR with zero modern digital marketplace. Controller.com generates ~$18M on legacy tech.

Proven Marketplace Playbook

Applying the Webmotors/Carvana model to aviation: consumer-grade UX + AI pricing + integrated financing. Proven in auto and real estate.

Brazil-First Advantage

2nd largest GA market globally with zero dominant digital platform. Controller has no Brazil presence. First-mover with ABACE as launch event.

7 Diversified Revenue Streams

SaaS subscriptions, listing fees, commissions (capped at 1%), ancillary services (insurance, PPI, legal), data analytics, and brand advertising.

Capital-Efficient Execution

$920K seed for 18 months runway. AI-assisted development (Claude Code) for lean MVP build. EBITDA positive by Year 3.

Unique Founder-Market Fit

7+ years leading 30+ M&A transactions, deep Brazil aviation network, investment banking pedigree, and technical marketplace-building capability.

The Disruption Thesis

Controller.com generates ~$18M revenue with print-era technology. Its moat is liquidity, not product.

AeroDesk captures share by delivering 10x better experience — starting in Brazil where Controller has zero presence.
